

I am totally dismayed that plans are being considered to change the marine park protection around Australia and allow commercialisation of many of these areas to allow larger fishing trawlers and greater oil exploration. I object that you are shrinking the marine parks and putting the pristine environment of these marine parks in danger and the sea life and reefs . I would implore you to reconsider these plans and think of the environment that has no voice but needs your continued protect

Sent from my iPhone