

I am writing to urge/beg/plead you not to put profits before the conservation of our oceans.
To not protect reefs and permit midwater trawling seems an act of vandalism...particularly at this time when land based activities are contributing to climate change, with damaging consequences to oceans.
And so the vicious cycle goes on!
Please conserve and protect for our future generations Christine Fair Sent from my iPad