

We need to start caring MORE for our oceans and the creatures that live there, not less. Global warming is affecting the corals in Queensland and therefore the fish as well. We need to keep our ocean sanctuaries - don't reduce them. Vickie Likar

Sent from my Samsung GALAXY S5