

I cannot believe the Australian government is so short sighted as to wind back the marine parks we have. Have they no knowledge of the advantage to commercial fishermen of these protections. It is so depressing to be in Australia today with such short sightedness on so many fronts. Save our marine parks. Colleen Enchelmaier