

This should not be a government right to take away something so important for our children's futures. STOP promoting profits over the environment. The only ones profiting from this are commercial interests and I as an Australian demand that these marine sanctuaries are preserves for future generations to enjoy.

Vicki Wattus

Sent from my iPhone