

Hi,

I really wonder if your government wants to become known as the worst ever in protecting our environment. We have already lost so much and caused irreparable damage to the eco system. Later generations in the years to come will ask why on earth we let this happen. I do not agree with and will not support your proposed changes to the marine reserves.

Please let sanity prevail and leave things exactly as the are.

Willem Minnebo