

It's time for Australia to show leadership and continue to protect our nearby waters. Any suggestion of reducing the protection offered around our country by reducing protected areas is short sighted at least and at worst smacks of big business involvement.

I demand the Australian Government to maintain the area of water under protection or you will go down in history as the destroyers of these parks.

Leigh Atkinson