

We need our oceans. fish stocks are just starting to improve in my area after trawling was banned in shore sanctuaries are breeding grounds for in shore coastal species. I also think all commercial fishing in lakes and tributaries should be banned and recreation fishing aloud in these areas. I'm not a greeny I'm a fisherman and swimmer and lover of beautiful areas, and fish in abundance is a beautiful site.

Thanks, Patrick Cairney