

Good evening

I am writing to you to ask you to please value our land and our oceans and put more protections in place - not fewer.

You are not listening to the people.

We want our marine parks to be enlarged not diminished. We are extremely concerned about the degradation of our oceans.

You need to change the way you think about the environment - or you'll be in opposition.

Sincerely

Antoinette Braeder

Eden Monaro.

Sent from my iPhone