

The Australian government needs to protect all our current marine parks not cut them back. We have been privileged enough to experience these wonders and they must be protected so that our children, grand children and all future generations have the same opportunities. If these marine parks are not protected from money hungry corporations they will be damaged beyond repair and lost forever. Please protect our national treasures.

Ingrid Clegg

Sent from Samsung tablet