

Please don't make reductions to Marine National Parks. The areas identified badly need protecting. I have been a recreational fisherman all my life but I support having the Marine National Parks unreduced.

Please leave them alone. Our oceans are overfished and i want our generation to pass on a healthy marine environment to our grandchildren.

regards

Brad McCulloch