

Hi

Please stop the proposal to wind back or ocean protections.

It is inconceivable to me that you consider this to be an appropriate action.

There are more important things than short sighted and short term financial gain.

Our ocean and marine environments are way more important, for all our wellbeing, marine animals and future generations.

Kind Regards

Steve Callanan