

To whom it may concern,

I am writing as I am deeply concerned about the proposed winding back of protections for our marine environment. Our marine environment is vital to our health and prosperity and must be properly protected. Reducing protections opens up the possibility of exploitation, pollution and environmental destruction. I do not support these changes and will not vote for a government that does not take the protection of our marine environment seriously.

Regards,
Belinda Wright