

Please stop the winding back of marine protected areas. We need to do more not less in the area of protection.

This is not ideology like the prime minister called clean energy this week. It's common sense that allows our oceans to regenerate before we exploit them to a pitiful end.

Let's show leadership not vote chasing rhetoric and look after our planet

Kind regards
Richard