

Please instead of protecting less of our oceans we have to protect more. The ocean is not a bottomless source of fish. We are overfishing. The fish industry has to cut down and unfortunately fisherman start finding another job.

We have to protect more. That's why tourists coming to Australia for the natural beauty and not for our lovely eyes. This government is destroying our tourism and flora

Please protect before it is too late

Rudy