

We need our government to understand that protecting the life within the oceans surrounding us, is also protecting all human life on land, now and into the future. If they do not understand, or cannot follow the logical reasoning, they shouldn't be in positions of responsibility.

Sent from my iPhone