

Good Grief, our seas (the entire planet too), are dying mainly because of man made interference. We need more protection of our seas, , not less! Anybody with children should realize this & strive to leave something for them.