

Our oceans are at great risk due to pollution and over fishing. Now is the time to take every possible action to protect them.

Marine parks are critical in this regard

Surely we should be extending these not planning vastly reduce the area designated for inclusion.

Please stand up for our marine environment.

Sandra Davidson.