

Dear Mr Burke,

As a parent, I am deeply concerned about the world I will be leaving to my children. There are so many challenges and threats to our natural treasures!

I urge you to do all in your power to protect what is left of our marine environment and commit to urgent action against climate change.

Regards
Catherine Guy

Sent from my iPhone