

I am horrified by the current Government's lack of foresight and inability to comprehend the damage they are considering to the oceans, to the reefs, to our sustainability. I do not understand how they can even be considering this. I have no confidence in any political party in this country. I am ashamed of them all.