

Can someone from the Marine Management Planning Department please explain why on earth you would even consider opening up the marine conservation areas to commercial enterprises?
Why exploit & plunder our precious marine sanctuaries?
I can only surmise it is to make money at the expense & eventual destruction of the environment.
Disgraceful!!
Jill Hearman

Sent from my iPhone