

I am dismayed by the proposal to take away so many areas from our Marine National Park. Areas such as these should be protected in order to save marine life.

Allowing midwater trawling and longline fishing in what should be protected areas is so short-sighted when there is so much evidence that other threats such as pollution and acidification already exist.

Please try to think of the future and how we might preserve other species.

Yours sincerely

Jennifer Hole
3 Riga Crescent
Willetton WA 6155