

I respectfully request that the planned devastating removal of protection of our totally irreplaceable MARINE SANCTUARIES please be reconsidered. The removal of these sanctuaries for the sole benefit of commercialism is impossible to justify, we as a nation believe. We worry further that this says to the world that Australia has no regard for conservation at all. Sadly underwater areas are not on constant display, as is deforestation etc.

Respectfully.

Graham. Neighbour.

Postcode 5012.