

It is a sad time for all Australian voters to hear that our government is cutting back the area of our available fishing resorts. Already the numbers of fish have depleted so I ask as a liberal. "Please reconsider this plan and stop the destruction of our environment by mining magnates whose only wish is to make more money "

Sent from Samsung Mobile