

As a long time and avid user of our marine environment- diver, recreational fisherman and surfer in three states of the Commonwealth in which I have lived- I urge the Government to fully implement the marine reserves as they were initially proposed in 2012. To do anything less is to jeopardise not just the marine environment but our role as custodians of the Earth's delicately balanced and fragile natural resources.

Mike Vanderkelen
Highton Victoria 3216
Mobile 0408 116911