

Please do not reduce the area of our marine protected areas/parks. This will destroy biodiversity and the long term future of our marine life. With climate change having such an impact on corals it is even more important to increase protections of our coral reefs not reduce them. Please stop this vandalism of our environment.

Linda