

Dear Mr Burke,

How can we be so thoughtless and careless with the world we live in as to invite even further damage to our oceans than has already taken place?

Please reconsider the Governments proposal to cut marine protection.

A seriously concerned citizen of Australia, Margaret Brockman