

Australian Government

Dear Sir / Madam,

The oceans surrounding our country are a huge and vital but fragile resource that the Nation must preserve and protect.

Conservation is sensible use that avoids destroying the future potentials.

Marine Parks are hatcheries, breeding grounds and refuges that are critical for biological resources.

I support the continuation and expansion as needed of Australian Marine Parks.

Yours Faithfully

Philip Bott