

Please do not make another poor environmental decision and reduced our marine parks any further. Our oceans are under threat from climate change and many other human interventions it is important for us to protect as much of them as we can.

Your sincerely
Lois Denham