

What in God's or anyone else's name are you thinking by reducing marine conservation areas?
Economic growth via consumption is unsustainable. The sooner global governments embrace this on behalf of the constituents they represent, instead of pandering to commercial interests that buy their favour, the sooner I can have faith that this beautiful earth will survive human habitation for future generations.

PLEASE DONT REDUCE MARINE CONSERVATION AREAS!!!

Debbie Nelson

Postcode 6210

Sent from my iPad