

stop the continued degradation of our oceans. The current sell out marks the end of our pristine oceans from large scale fishing, exploitation for oil and degradation as to other interests. Malcolm Turnbull manufactured news last week with his granddaughter, she will inherit a polluted ocean and no viable fish stocks.

You as a government are avoiding taking any meaningful position long term environmental policy. Leave your granddaughter a legacy.

Roslyn Howe

Mobile: 0475 309 440

Sent from my iPad.