

Our oceans are the lungs of our planet. More oxygen and carbon dioxide are exchanged in the oceans than in the Amazon and ocean ecosystems are under threat as never before through over-fishing, global warming and pollution. Marine National Parks must be protected.

David Esdaile

9 Nundah Close

Bomaderry NSW 2541

0434968797