

Dear Mr Burke,

I am writing to ask you not to reduce the amount of ocean Australia protects.

I feel it's very important that Australia continues to protect as much ocean as possible, as there will be many who would take the opportunity to fish in these waters and not necessarily in an environmentally way.

So please, Minister, keep our oceans safe for the future.

Yours sincerely,

Janice Fawcett