

The ocean needs protection. Marine parks need to be enlarged not decreased in size as the ocean is the sink for our weather, our existence and our future. Messing with marine food webs does not work. Be the leaders, not the followers and show how a sustainable marine environment should be now and for the future by increasing our marine park areas. James Holmes.

Sent from Mail for Windows 10