

I wholeheartedly disapprove of any plan to cut back on protection for our ocean habitats. We must fight to protect what we have before it is too late. What legacy will we leave for future generations? Please do what you know is ethically and conscientiously right for our country and planet.

Regards

Amy