

I wish to express my concern that the existing marine conservation areas are at risk of being changed to their detriment. I support the retention and indeed, expansion of marine conservation areas.

Australia is unique in having clean, green credentials and this augers well in continuing to build our tourism industries and enhance our contribution to the global health of our environment.

Yours sincerely
Kaye Cook