

Dear Madams and Sirs,

It's a terrible idea to reduce the protected ocean area in Australia. This is not some kind of fashion. The area protected by Australia is very sensitive and if it affected it will affect the entire ecosystem and eventually humans. It's time to fight for sustainability, not the other way around. Money is not everything.

Please reconsider your intentions and protect your treasure.

Mario