

I am writing to express my great concern at the plans of the Australian Government to effectively halve the area of the coastal seas under it's stewardship.

The world standard marine reserves previously planned by the government must not be reduced, and the level of protection afforded by regulation must be increased, not reduced. Our tourism industry and future fish stocks, not to mention the biodiversity heritage we leave our descendants, depend on it.

Yours sincerely

Alan Pursch
2 Red Head Road
Hallidays Point
NSW 2430
0413482505
alan.pursch@gmail.com