

Why is it to destroy some many organisms homes? The ocean is home to thousands of animals many of them becoming extinct. Please think about the environmental affects of your actions, I want my children and their children's children to be able to swim in pollution free oceans that are full of abundance.

Please consider why your doing this and the repercussion. Do you really want to silence thousands and kill them?

This is the ocean wildlifes fate