

As a conservationist and fishermen I recognise the importance of fully protecting significant marine areas. The apparent intention of this government in drastic winding back of marine sanctuaries is indefensible and appalling. On any reasonable scientific and social grounds it should be opposed. Do not do it!

Rod Webster