

We were so relieved when the present marine reserves were created, following a far too long period of neglect, over-exploitation and deterioration. Now, the proposed removal of protection just defies reason. Your lobbyists have only one objective and that is short-term profit from a dying resource, while hastening its demise. What do you think your'e doing?! Abbott made no attempt to disguise his wired assault on our environment but we hoped those unhappy days were over.

Sent from my iPad