

Consider carefully what you are about to do. This is not a legacy to be proud of. We have but one planet and for better or worse, we are its keepers: please make it for the better.
David Phillips