

Please reconsider your plans to reduce the protected areas in the marine environment. The long term sustainability of our marine environment depends on having a substantial network of no-take areas where marine life can continue to flourish. The current system is adequate for this purpose. Do not reduce it.

Yours sincerely,
Philip Jennings
Murdoch, WA 6150

Sent from my iPad