

Please guys expand the national and marine Park areas in Australia. This is our future and it's sustainable. Do not under any circumstance reduce these designated zones - not for mining, not for fishing, not for any commercial activities...future generations will thank you.

Regards

Tom