

Dear Sir / Madam.

I strongly oppose proposals to reduce the size and scope of Australia's Marine National Parks. These conservation regions are essential for maintaining a healthy aquatic ecosystem. At a time when global warming is stressing these ecosystems in a unprecedented manner, now is not the time to be opening the area currently in marine parks to further damage.

Please maintain the marine parks as implemented by the previous government.

Sincerely,
James

Dr James R Anderson MBBS BMedSci W.Aust

M: +61 403 926 510

E: james@anderson-au.com

P: 3 White Street, North Fremantle 6159 Western Australia.