

I am writing to register my utter disgust at the Government's proposal to significantly reduce the amount of protected marine National Parks in Australian waters.

Particularly in the Coral sea which is such an important area for maintaining biodiversity in our precious oceans.

This is a huge backward step in resource management for our nation and the rest of the world, since how we act here will have global ramifications. I urge the Government to reconsider its stance on this issue.

Yours Sincerely.

Geoff Linnell
26 Jackson Street
Mt. Martha Vic 3934.