

I find it offensive that your government intends to reduce marine protection for our oceans when they are already in serious trouble from pollution due to acidity and other human interference. I trust you understand that this is the only planet that will support human life and if it not protected we will all suffer the consequences.

Virus-free. www.avast.com