

The proposed changes to the Marine National Parks are an absolute disgrace.
No Government ever has taken this many hectares out of conservation before.
Why does the current Government need to reverse all the good work done by previous Governments?
Australia could lead the way in protecting the marine environment instead they take the largest backward step in conservation in history.

Regards
Marcia Watson