

To whomever may receive this.

We should be the leaders in ocean land species conservation. We have Australian icons like Steve Irwin. Yet we disregard all knowledge for a few short-lived bucks. Please have some sense and do what's right for the environment and future generations and dont wind back ocean protection zones..

Kind regards

Kristian Richmond