

Government ministers,I read with great dismay of your plans to greatly reduce our marine parks protection.It is a thoughtless selfish act and beggars belief.You are caretakers of Australia including sea and land life.Do not leave destruction as your legacy .Show some responsible moral fibre.Australia's reputation is sliding downhill fast with your decision making and the impacts of your decisions are hurting both people and the environment.Whom exactly are you representing?

Dismayed,Jan Bull.

Sent from my Samsung device